LOCAL NEWS.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 30.

THE LATE CORONER'S INQUEST .- We have already given the particulars of the late Coroner's Inquest held in this place. The National Intelligencer has some very bitter comments on the subject. The article is headed "Radical Barbarism." It complains that the "coroner was compelled to act as he did noder pain of party disfavor"-that it was "a shameful spectacle of vulgar weakness or despecable obsequiousness"-that a "jury to view the body of a white maiden was not to consist of white men, even for so simple and sad a duty, but that others must be brought to exult in political fellowship over the body of a poor girl in the faces of her brothers" - and it asks, after describing the scene, and the anguish of the brothers as they looked upon the body of their dead sister, "what must a bystander be who could reckon up partisan considerations, count the votes which might be carried out of their anguish, or forecast the mean reproach of the meanest of Radicals for emitting at such a time and place to parade the new enfranchisement?" Had this been said on this side of the Potomac it would have been probably urged as an additional reason for some new "turn of the screw"-as a proof of "disloyalty" -as a reason for interfering with the municipal authorities-as cause for denouncing our citizens-or something of the kind!

FALSE REPORT.-The following letter was received yesterday by Capt. Jas. M. Steuart: LITTLETON, Halifax co., N.C., July 26. To the Sheriff of the city of Alexandria:

DEAR SIR: - It is reported that there was hung in your city a few weeks ago, a colored living on South River. man named Jackson Skinner: the said Jackson was a mulatto, six teet high and about thirtyeight years of uge.

It is hoped that it is untrue, as he was a man of good character and highly esteemed by his former mistress.

Your reply will confer a favor and be appreciated by his triends. Very respectfully. SMITH N. BRICKHOUSE.

Owing to the number of loyal league societies and other new fangled secret associations, that have lately been organized in this city and neighborhood, it is almost impossible to discover exactly what does transpire; but if any such heavy offence as is alluded to above has occurred in this vicinity, it is more than the reporter for the Gazette has been able to determine-certainly no dead body has as yet

FOURTH WARD RADICALS .- A regular meet in of the Stevens' Republican club of the Fourth Ward, was held last night in Bethlehem church, colored, on Columbus street, James H. Claggett, colored, the President, in the chair and Anthony Perpener, colored, Secretary .-The speakers were J. T. Stoutenburgh, John Birrell, and R. W. P. Garnett, white, and Wm. Smith, colored. R. W. P. Garnett and two colored men were elected additional delegates to the Richmond Convention. It was resolved to change the club into a Union League. A committee was appointed to prepare resolutions embodying a determination on the part of the club to refuse to patronize the Washing. people were admitted into all the cars on that road. At a late hour the meeting adjourned.

POPULATION OF ALEXANDRIA. - The population of Alexandria at the different censuses from the year 1800 until 1860, according to statistical reports in official documents is exhibited in the annexed table :

In the twenty years from 1820 to 1840 the increase was only 241, from 1840 to 1850 the increase was but 275, while during the decade in a most agreeable manner. from 1850 to 1860 the increase was 3,918greater than the increase from 1800 to 1810, which was 3,031.

GEORGETOWN. - A writer in the Annapolis Republican, speaking of the railroad projects in which Baltimore is interested, says:

"As the Potomac river Aqueduct has been a conveyor of coal, flour and other products from our Western counties to Alexandria, instead of Baltimore, I do not understand why Georgetown should desire its demolition in pure spite to Baltimore, unless her people suppose it might be used as the bed of a track for direct railroad communication between the North and the South, over which a few bales of cotton and packages of tobacco and other Southern products might find their way to our of Georgetown, be the principle which governs, | in the garden of God. then it may be pertinent for us to inquire if In this city, on the 25th instant, after a short we cannot retaliate by providing, through the illness, EDWARD CLARK DAY, youngest action of our Legislature, for the demolition son of Edward and Annastasia Day. and filling up of the Chesapeake and Ohio

GOLD FISH .- Gold Fish are now quite plentiful in the Potomuc. A large and beautiful specimen, just ready to spawn, was caught in the dock, at the foot of Prince street, this morning. All these fish, now in the river, it is supposed, originated from one or two of them, or from some of their spawn, which escaped DENTAL CARD. itol grounds, in Washington, through the sew-ers, into the Potomac.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY RADICALS. - A large meeting of the Republican Club of Alexandria county, was held last night at Camp Convalescent, Thomas Hyatt, colored, the President, in the Chair, and William Richardson, colored, Secretary. A collection of $16 was taken up to defray the expenses of the delegates to the Richmond Convention. Thornton Hyatt and Richard Miles, colored, were elected delegates to represent the club in the Richmand Convention, and in his speech acknowledging the honor confered upon him, the latter said that the disease called Botts was somewhat prevalent in the State at present, but that he had a certain cure for it, a precess to thoroughly eradicate it, which was to kick it out." Speeches were also made by Angustus Raney, colored, and by J. T. Burnett, T. J. Edelin and Larkin Patton, white, of this city. A vote of thanks & Co was unanimously awarded to those persons from this city who were present; after which, at one o'clock, a. m., the meeting adjourned until to-night, with three cheers for the success of the Radical Republican Party in Virginia.

ARRESTS. - A man named Charles Casey, who says he lives in Alexandria, was arrested on Sunday night for committing a robbery at the house of Mr. John Foley, on Seventeenth street, between D and E, in Washington. He was eaught and secured by Mrs. Foley, just as he was about to leap from a window. He was at once, as the Company will issue their first committed for court.

At Annapolis, Md., on Fridy last a boy by the name of Horace Folks, (colored,) formerly a slave of Mr. Daniel T. SPLENDID LAMB. - Mr. James Watkins had, at his stall, No. 3, new market, this morning, some of the finest lamb sold in the city this summer.
